Acquisition Workforce Demo Project

Position Requirements Document

I. Organization Information: Position is located in the Business Operations Office of the Program Executive Office for Simulation, Training and Instrumentation (PEO STRI).

II. Position Information: PEO Strategic Integrator, YA-0301-03

III. Duties:

The incumbent is the expert advisor to and representative of the Program Executive Officer on outreach policies and procedures to accomplish missions and functions of PEO STRI. Responsible for developing and executing outreach strategies and plans that build partnerships and increase awareness of themes and messages directly supporting missions of PEO STRI. An expert knowledge of the PEO STRI mission, programs, functions, and its aims and objectives is necessary to carry out these functions successfully. The incumbent of this position will have complete access to PEO program status and plans and respond to DA inquiries, guidance, and direction regarding those programs.

1. Serves as the Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA) focal point and senior technical expert on current and emerging PEO STRI programs, business strategy and acquisition programs. As the Program Executive Officer's representative, the PEO Strategic Integrator is the principal source of acquisition and technical expertise on PEO STRI programs within the Pentagon. The PEO Strategic Integrator provides a consistent presence for PEO STRI senior leaders to relay issues, concerns, and perceptions to key stakeholders in Washington, DC. The incumbent develops strategic communications and outreach to the HQDA staff and to organizations external to HQDA. Physically located in Orlando, the incumbent serves as the bridge for institutional knowledge of programs and is readily accessible and responsive to HQDA personnel. The incumbent works closely with the organization's Department of the Army Systems Coordinators (DASC) on program specific issues not related to funding and provides information/issues for resolution.

2. As the PEO Strategic Integrator, ensures open lines of communication and understanding are preserved by establishing and maintaining close working relationships with HQDA staff, with specific focus on DA G-3, ASA (ALT) and DUSA-OR, among PMs and staff agencies, and assists in responses to inquiries. Assesses Program achievements and effectiveness of the organization in order to assess the desirability of major program changes. Assists in the preparation of required documentation for HQDA, OSD, OMB and Congress to support and defend PEO positions on materiel acquisition matters and specific PEO program matters. Assists DA staff in the development, coordination and promulgation of materiel acquisition policy and procedure that pertains to the PEO operations. Assists in preparing supporting documentation on the impact of policy, program and budget changes on the organization and its ability to perform life cycle management of the programs. Represents the PEO and associated PMs at various conferences and meetings, both formal and informal, with key and top officials of the Army and representatives from other activities/agencies to resolve different viewpoints regarding controversial issues and ensure concerted action by the involved parties.

3. Assists the PEO, DPEO, Executives, and Product/Project Managers in developing, managing, and executing strategic plans, operational concepts, policies, position papers, and briefings to support PEO STRI programs. Effective performance of assigned duties requires the highest order of judgment, initiative and sound knowledge of the policies of the Army and Department of Defense. The position also requires a thorough knowledge of PEO STRI programs, Army programs and issues, DoD organization and relationships with Congress, other agencies, industry and the public sector. The incumbent must have the ability to deal adeptly with a wide range of high-level government and private sector officials in a variety of environments.

4. Monitors Army materiel acquisition policy, program and budget issues impacting on the PEO. Analyzes trends, policies and actions at Congress, OSD, OMB, HQDA, other service headquarters and other DOD agencies for effect on the PEO. Takes action or recommends courses of action to the PEO or HQDA. Reports pertinent developments to the PEO. Reviews, evaluates and develops materiel acquisition issues pertaining to the PEO. Plans with the PEO and PMs program acquisition strategies. Maintains an understanding of the programs with emphasis on cost, schedule, and performance. Maintains awareness of the health of programs in order to communicate effectively and accurately with G-3, OSD, and Congressional staffers. Attends PM business reviews and other meetings that are of critical importance to keeping abreast of programs. Performs these actions to enable early identification of problem areas; to increase knowledge of programs by DA staff, OSD, and congressional staffers, and to provide a solution to problems as early as possible to limit impacts on cost, schedule, and performance.

Performs other duties as assigned.
